Material Witnesses, Mariajose Corona-Morales, Monserrat Corona-Morales., (hereafter “Material Witnesses”) by and through their counsel, Robert E. Schroth Jr., submit the following Memorandum of Points and Authorities in support of their motion to take the videotaped depositions.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR DEPOSITION

I.INTRODUCTION

On or about May 28, 2008, the Material Witnesses were detained by U.S. Border Patrol Agents in connection with the arrest of the above captioned Defendants. The defendants have been charged with illegally bringing in undocumented aliens in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1324(a)(1)(A)(ii) and the Material Witnesses, who were with the defendant at the time of his arrest, have been detained as Material Witnesses under 8 U.S.C. § 1227 (d).

The Material Witnesses are currently being held at the CSJ detention facility in San Diego, California. On June 2, 2008, and again on June 11, 2008 the attorney for the material witnesses was informed by the material witnesses that they knew of no one in this country that could post a bond for them to allow for their release from custody during the pendency of this case.

It is unnecessary to keep the Material Witnesses in the United States because their testimony can be preserved through the use of a videotaped deposition.¹ The Material Witnesses therefore request a court order that their testimony be preserved through the use of videotape depositions and, thereafter, that they be allowed to return to their families in Mexico.

II.

THE TESTIMONY OF THE MATERIAL WITNESS CAN BE SECURED BY VIDEOTAPE DEPOSITION AND THERE IS NO COMPELLING REASON TO KEEP THEM IN CUSTODY

Title 18, section 3144 of the United States Code Provides:

¹ While a witness may be detained for a reasonable period of time, the court must vigilantly guard an undocumented alien's "overriding liberty interest" and schedule a videotape deposition at the earliest possible time. See, Aguilar-Ayala v. Ruiz 973 F. 2d 411, 419 (5th Cir. 1992).

1 No Material Witness may be detained . . . if the testimony of such witness can
2 adequately be secured by deposition, and if further detention is not necessary to prevent
3 a failure of justice.

4 The deposition of the Material Witness may be used at trial in criminal cases, so it is
5 only in exceptional circumstances, where the interests of justice will be denied, that a videotape
6 deposition is not appropriate. See, Torres-Ruiz v. United States 120 F.3d 933 (9th Cir. 1997)
7 [citing Aguilar Ayala v. Ruiz 973 F.2d 411, 413 (5th Cir. 1992) see also 8 U.S.C. § 1324 (d),
8 Federal Rules of Evidence 804, and Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 15. Defendants may 9 be present at the videotape deposition and therefore have a full and fair opportunity to cross-
10 examine the witnesses. The videotape provides sufficient indicia of reliability to afford the trier
11 of fact a satisfactory basis for evaluating the truth of a statement. Dutton v. Evans, 400 U.S. 74,
12 89 (1970).

14 The government or defendant can effectuate the detention of the material witness upon a
15 showing that (1) the material witness will, in all likelihood, be unavailable to testify for trial,
16 and (2) that the use of deposition testimony will deny the defendant a fair trial and that live
17 testimony would somehow be significantly different. See, Aguilar-Ayala v. Ruiz 973 F.2d at 18 413 (5th Cir. 1992), United States v. Humberto Rivera 859 F.2d 1204, 1208 (4th Cir. 1988).
19 That would be a difficult burden in this case, however, because the Material Witnesses have 20 indicated that they are willing to return for trial if the government makes arrangements for their 21 legal re-entry into the country and provides travel expenses.² (Schroth Decl. At para. 6).
22

23 The Material Witnesses should not be detained because their testimony can be 24 adequately secured by depositions. This is a very routine alien smuggling case. Based on 25

27 ² The government would undoubtedly take reasonable steps in this case, as it has in other similar cases, to secure the witness's testimony at trial
28 by personally subpoenaing the witness, providing travel costs, and arranging for legal re-entry of the alien. (See, United States v. Eufrazio-
Torres 890 F.2d 266, 270 (10th Cir. 1989) cert. Denied 494 U.S. 1008 (1990) [government need not guarantee the witness will be available, only that they use good-faith efforts to secure their presence at trial]; see also, Ohio v. Roberts, 448 U.S. 56, 65 (1980) [so long as the government

1 interviews with the Material Witnesses and the report submitted by the arresting agency, the
2 facts to which the Material Witnesses are competent to testify are straightforward. (Schroth
3 Decl. At para. 5).

4 Moreover, neither the Material Witnesses nor their counsel, have been informed that the 5 witnesses' detention is necessary to prevent a failure of justice. (Schroth Decl. At para. 4).

6 Quite to the contrary, the witnesses have already spent a considerable time in jail, more than one
7 month to the date this motion is to be heard, and it is very important that they be released as
8 soon as possible so that they may be reunited with their family in Mexico who depend on them
9 for their support. (Schroth Decl. At para. 2 and 4.). Mariajose Corona-Morales and Monserrat
10 Corona-Morales.Santiago are sisters who have come to the United States to earn money to send 11 home to their father who is sick and can not work. Their mother past away and there is no one 12 else to support him while the sisters are in custody. Moreover Mariajose Corona-Morales is 13 only 15 years old and has juvenile diabetes. She is unable to maintain the proper diet while in 14 custody as prescribed by her doctor. (Schroth Decl. At para. 4.).

15 For these reasons, the Material Witnesses request that the court immediately order the 16 taking of their videotaped depositions and that they thereafter be immediately returned to 17 Mexico.

5 TO REMAIN IN CUSTODY

6 Where a witness has been held in custody for more than 10 days, the government has an
7 obligation to prepare a biweekly report stating the reasons why such a witness should not be
8 released with or without the taking of a deposition. Fed. Rules Crim. Proc., Rule 46 (g).

9 The Material Witnesses are not aware of any reasons why they should remain in 10 custody, but to the extent the government knows of any such reason, they hereby request that 11 the government provide them with a copy of a biweekly written report indicating these reasons.

14 CONCLUSION

15 For the forgoing reasons, the Material Witnesses respectfully request that this motion for 16 the taking of videotaped depositions be granted. In the alternative, the Witnesses request that 17 they immediately be provided with a statement of the reasons why they need to remain in 18 custody.

Criminal Case No.: 08cr1910-BTM.
Magistrate Case No.: 08-mj-08480-PCL

DECLARATION OF ROBERT E.
SCHROTH IN SUPPORT OF MATERIAL
WITNESSES MOTION FOR A VIDEOTAPE DEPOSITION

Date: July 3, 2008
Time: 2:00 p.m.
Judge: Hon. Barry T. Moskowitz

I the undersigned, declare as follows:

1. My name is Robert E. Schroth Jr., and I am the attorney of record for Mariajose Corona-Morales, Monserrat Corona-Morales, the material witnesses in the above-captioned matter. I am an attorney duly licensed to practice law in the State of California and am admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the Southern District of California.

2. On May 30, 2008, I was appointed to represent the material witnesses in the above-captioned matter. As a Material Witness attorney, one of my primary responsibilities is to help arrange the release of the material witness from the custody of the U.S. Marshal and ICE as soon as practicable. To that end, I immediately conducted interviews with the Material

1 Witnesses, through a certified Spanish language interpreter to explain why they were being held
2 and under what conditions they could be released. I informed the Material Witnesses that the
3 most expedient way to be released is by having a personal surety post a court approved
4 appearance bond. I explained on two separate occasions that a personal surety would have to 5 agree to sign a $5,000.00 appearance bond, post $500.00 cash with the court, and agree to allow 6 the Material Witnesses to stay with the surety or a family member pending final disposition of 7 the case. Unfortunately, the witnesses, do not know anyone who lives in the United States, who 8 is willing and able to post the bonds for them. After multiple phone calls to their friends and 9 family members in Mexico and the United States no one has expressed a willingness or ability
10 to post the bonds.

13 3. Prior to filing this motion I contacted the attorneys of record in this case and 14 requested that they stipulate to the taking of the videotaped deposition of the material witnesses,
15 however, the Federal Defenders informed me that they would not stipulate.
16

17 4. I am not aware or have not been informed of any reason in this case why the 18 Material Witnesses' testimony can not be adequately secured by deposition by either the 19 government or the defendant's attorney. To the contrary, compelling reasons exists for the 20 release of the material witnesses as continued detention will cause a hardship on the material
21 witnesses and their family. Mariajose Corona-Morales and Monserrat Corona-Morales.Santiago
22 are sisters who have come to the United States to earn money to send home to their father who 23 is sick and can not work. Their mother past away and there is no one else to support him while 24 the sisters are in custody. Moreover Mariajose Corona-Morales is only 15 years old and has 25 juvenile diabetes. She is unable to maintain the proper diet while in custody as prescribed by 26 her doctor
27

5. The Material Witnesses are more than willing to discuss everything they know about this case with both the defense and government investigators. The fact is, however, there are only a few facts relevant to this case which the material witnesses are competent to testify: i.e. (a) his citizenship, (b) who might have transported the witness, and (c) whether the witness agreed to pay anyone. According to preliminary interviews, all of the facts relevant to this case in the material witnesses' knowledge took place over a very short period of time.

6. I explained the general procedure for videotape depositions to the witnesses and explained that, if they were released after the depositions, they may have to return to testify at trial if subpoenaed by the government or defendant. The witnesses indicated they are willing to return if arrangements for their legal re-entry could be made and travel expenses provided.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct and that this declaration was executed in San Diego, California on June 11, 2008.
